About Us

The Truly Scrumptious Group manage successful, well- advertised and promoted, popular Wedding Shows and Events throughout Cambridgeshire and Lincolnshire. We have an excellent reputation locally with many people aware of the Truly Scrumptious brand and with a high profile across our social media network we have the privilege and ability to reach thousands of local followers.

Why Exhibit With Us?

We are constantly told our shows are some of the most professionally managed and friendliest shows in the country but don't take our word for it, read the reviews on our website!

- All shows are well advertised and promoted via Social Media, popular Internet Wedding Websites, magazine adverts, banners and flyers.
- Unlike many other wedding show organisers we will NOT flood a show with lots of the same thing but carefully manage categories to ensure couples have a good choice whilst ensuring we are always fair to exhibitors.
- When you exhibit you will receive regular and on-going shout-outs across our Social Media network and not just exposure on Show Day!

Occasion Planning

Our popular Wedding Shows give couples an ideal opportunity to source and meet great local suppliers but wedding planning doesn't happen just during Wedding Show season so what can couples do at other times of the year? The Internet is a BIG scary place, couples can search and find companies online but behind the flashy website how do they know who's good and who isn't, reviews can be false! Does the company have Insurance, Certification, are they a reputable longstanding business or a here today gone tomorrow type of company?

People organise a whole variety of special occasions and not just weddings! We've been approached countless times for recommendations for good venues and suppliers for other celebrations: children or adult parties, anniversaries, christening, in fact any occasion where people want to gather to celebrate something special. The same concerns and questions couples have finding reputable suppliers when planning a wedding equally apply for anyone planning other occasions!
